

ACO. creating the future of drainage.

ACO Group is the world market leader in drainage technology with offices in more than 40 countries on 6 continents. Climate change brings us face to face with challenges to respond. Increasingly extreme weather must be counteracted by more complex and sophisticated drainage concepts. ACO achieves this with intelligent system solutions which have a dual purpose: protecting people from water, and water from people.

To further strengthen our market presence in Bulgaria, we are looking for:
